To the RIMA Community,

No doubt the grumbling of too few candidates was from a member of the community that did not sponsor a candidate to the weekend. While I agree that it is better to have a weekend with 8+ candidates, I also saw the Holy spirit walk among us and perform great healing and growth. I for one was a recipient of healing on the last weekend. Who would have thought?

Of those who grumble, have they ever served on a team which has been cancelled? I have and I was to be the Rector, and we had 5 candidates to be on the weekend. While I was able to deal with this some of the team was not and have NEVER SERVED on a weekend since that time. That was about 15 years ago. If weekends are to be cancelled then they should be cancelled before the first team meetings or we should show a little faith. What a blessing Tres Dias is to God's work on earth.

If one is going to grumble then one should be prepared to help fix the problem. How would that be? How about starting or joining a Group Reunion. How about attending Secuelas and other 4th Day activities. Your life in Christ is a reflection of and in you. How are you keeping it strong enough to bear up to the things the world is throwing at you, or is your walk transparent? If you want to keep your heart in heaven and your feet planted on the ground, then you must look toward your spirit and provide it with sustenance or you will be one of those branches cast into the fire.

Christ is Counting on You,

Eric Borman

A Word From Ted Low.....

I want to thank everyone for a great men's 46 weekend. The Lord did a mighty work. I have heard grumbings that we should not have had the weekend with only 3 candidates. Jesus says wherever 2 or more are there I am! Enough said!
